The Raptivity team will participate in the prestigious ATD TechKnowledge 2016, being held at Caesars Palace, Las Vegas, Nevada, from January 13 - 15. Raptivity will be exhibition at booth #103 and plans on showcasing its flagship interactivity building tool – Raptivity, along with Raptivity Linker, the latest addition to its bucket of interactivity building solutions.

ATD TechKnowledge is one of the largest e-learning conferences and expositions in the industry. The expo is a networking hub for leading industry thinkers and people who are focused on the intersection of technology and training.

This year, when the conference unfolds on Jan 13, 2016, visitors to the Raptivity booth will get to experience our latest offering - Raptivity Linker. It is a free add-on to Raptivity and allows users to thread together stand-alone Raptivity interactions and build mini courses out of them.

Janhavi Padture, Vice President, Strategy and Innovation, Harbinger Knowledge Products, is excited to be a part of ATD TechKnowledge. “This is one event we make sure never to miss and I am excited to be a part of the 2016 conference. This year we plan to showcase the Raptivity’s library of interaction templates and Raptivity Linker. These two together is a complete solution for people who are getting started with eLearning or want to make their content more interactive using games, brainteasers, job aids etc. I encourage attendees to stop by the booth. Raptivity, as a product, works on a model of sustained innovation that leads to productivity. And in that sense we find ATD to be a ‘like-minded’ network of people who support innovation in learning technology”, Janhavi says.
